

Harp Performance on the Quequechan River Rail Trail

New England Irish Harp Orchestra

Saturday August 12th 4 PM—6 PM

On the trail near the railroad track display in between Britland Park and Quequechan St.

Park in the Wordell St. lot at Britland Park or on Rodman St

Walk along the trail. Bring a folding chair and stop and listen

Information

Quequechan River Rail Trail FB page

QRRT@groundworksouthcoast.org

The New England Irish Harp Orchestra performs traditional Irish dance tunes, slow airs, and songs. Members range in age from mid twenties to mid eighties and come from Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts. The Orchestra has been performing for twelve years throughout New England and Ireland. including performances at the John F. Kennedy Museum, the Whaling Museum in New Bedford and a number of local libraries.

Regina Delaney(Director) is a NH State Council on the Arts artist on the Traditional Arts and Arts in Health Care Roster.

For more information, visit neiho.org.